Gilman School

Report on Giving

People form the foundation of any institution.

Gilman's strong base derives from the many different kinds of people which comprise what we call the Gilman community. This diverse and committed group of parents, alumni, students, faculty, staff and friends is what sustains the School and keeps it focused on its mission to develop the total child—mind, body and spirit. The relationships that are formed within these various constituencies bring us all closer together and strengthen the fabric that we know as Gilman. Visible examples of these relationships are seen daily around campus and within the greater community; alumni getting together for lunch, parent volunteers planning the Bull Roast, boys playing together during their free time, a teacher providing some extra help to a student or a coach giving some pointers to a player. These personal interactions are what make Gilman such a special place. The relationships formed here continue for years and bind us all more closely together.

The Gilman community's financial commitment is a direct result of these relationships, and we are deeply grateful to the many people who give so generously in so many ways. It is your generosity that helps us to continue to build these relationships that will sustain future generations of the Gilman family, and it is your dedication to the School that allows us to offer so many opportunities for boys to grow and mature as students, athletes, artists and young men of character.

We are very blessed at Gilman, and I hope that each of you knows how much we appreciate your financial support, and how much we treasure our relationship with you.

Sincerely,

Headmaster

Gilman's bright future is evident by the superb support we receive.

The 2006-2007 school year was a wonderful one, hallmarking the beginning of my four years of service as President of the Board. I began my tenure in the midst of a major capital campaign, with construction much underway on the new Student Academic Center and the renovation of Carey Hall. If you have visited campus lately, you will agree that these projects have already had a profound effect, promising a bright, exciting future for Gilman.

Gilman's bright future is indeed evident by the superb support we receive from our greater constituency.

I am thrilled to report that we ended the year receiving $9.9 million in overall gifts from more than 2,800 ardent Gilman School loyalists.

The Campaign for Gilman School launched two new committees this year to aid in our fundraising efforts and to propel the momentum of the Campaign even further. The Parent and the Alumni Major Gifts Committees have been working tirelessly over the past 12 months to garner additional support. This Campaign is successful largely due to their unfailing efforts in reaching out to spread the word and engage as many people as possible in this effort. As always, our campaign leaders continued to work toward our overall $50 million campaign goal, and special thanks are due to them: Honorary Chair Wm. Polk Carey '48; National Chair Jon Jacobson '79; Co-chairs Jay Griswold '60, Nick Cortezi '84 P'11, '13, '19 and Tricia and Bob Merrick '77 P'14, along with the rest of the campaign steering committee. Perhaps most importantly, I want to thank all those whose generosity supported this campaign to date. We are indebted to the resounding support of Gilman's faculty, staff, parents, alumni and friends.

The Gilman Fund accomplished another record-breaking success this year under the chairmanship of Harry Halpert '85, P'15, '17 by garnering over $2 million of unrestricted and current use funds. More than 2,800 alumni, parents, and friends participated in the School's annual giving program, and heartfelt thanks go out to each of these loyal donors.

The 2007 Senior Parent Gift Effort led by the dynamic trio of Carita and Ned Kelly P'07, P'09, Barbara and James Shea P'07 and Joan and Richard Thomas '72, P'07 made particular strides this year, garnering $197,112 from parents and grandparents to name and furnish the third floor common area of Carey Hall, which is nestled between space used by the Mathematics and History departments. Seventy-six percent of senior parents took part in commemorating the graduating class in this significant way.

Alumni Reunions achieved remarkable successes as well. For example, the Class of 1987, led by Chairman Jack Cavanaugh '87, honored its 20th Reunion by raising $63,213 to help establish an environmental speaker program at Gilman. The 25th Reunion, led by Ned Brody '82 and Brian Doud '82, raised a remarkable $135,797 in gifts and pledges. The class chose to earmark their effort for scholarships. The 10th Reunion, chaired by Davis Noell '97, soared to new heights by garnering $15,060, which marks the third consecutive year that the 10th Reunion class has surpassed previous records. The 35th Reunion, led by Dennis Foster '72, P'10, '11, and the 5th Reunion broke their all-time records, too! All of the chairs of this year's reunion gift efforts showed determined dedication and leadership. Much thanks go to all of them, including: Robby Boyd '62; Bruce Taylor '67; Jim Ebeling '77 and Stewart Finney '77; and Justin Klein '92 and Matt Zink '92.

In fact, the 50th Reunion embarked upon a formidable effort to raise funds for both the Campaign and The Gilman Fund. By enlisting a dedicated group of 1957 classmates, they have already received approximately $750,000 in gifts and pledges! Although the class will continue to work into the next fiscal year, I extend immense appreciation to Frank Riggs and Dick Riggs, who are spearheading the effort, and to all of their 1957 colleagues for their hard work and dedication.

Volunteer spirit, dedication and commitment make these accolades possible. More than 400 volunteers who help our Gilman Fund fundraising efforts each year. I would like to particularly thank Harry Halpert '85, P'15, '17; Eben Finney '76, P'07, '08; Ted Waters '84; Bev and Neil Hoffberg P'11; Janet and Robert Siliciano P'08; and all The Gilman Fund alumni and parent volunteers for lending their enthusiasm and commitment of time to the annual giving effort this year.

Thank you, everyone, for making my first year as Board President such an exciting and memorable one. Here's to three more equally and even more successful years to come!

Fondly,

Charles C. Fenwick, Jr. '66
President,
Board of Trustees

Donor generosity, enthusiasm and commitment inspire our monumental year.

Perhaps gifts should not be counted in dollars but by each alumnus, mother, father, grandmother, grandfather and friend who contributed to the School this year. Giving to Gilman continues to grow, and the School has never been stronger.

Donor generosity, enthusiasm and commitment inspire our monumental year.

* Deceased

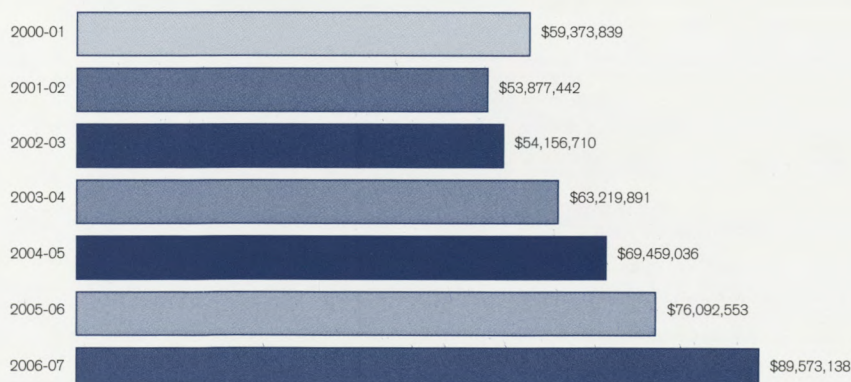

Gilman School is fortunate to have a solid financial base, demonstrated by the fact that 2006-2007 was the 33rd consecutive year that the School balanced its budget. Careful planning and budgeting of tuitions, successful annual campaigns, income from other sources and a well-managed endowment enables the School to maintain its firm financial foundation. During fiscal year 2006-2007 endowment income provided $2,644,198 towards Gilman's annual budget by financing scholarships, faculty support funds, academic department budgets and commencement costs, as well as providing important unrestricted funds to be used for needed School expenses.

Gilman School's investment philosophy calls for dependable current income coupled with consistent growth in the real value of the endowment. The School pursues these goals through three important strategies:

- By budgeting for current operations only apportion of the earnings from the endowment, and then by channeling back into the principal all income in excess of these limits;
- By managing the endowment portfolio to produce capital appreciation in addition to income; and,
- By attracting additional gifts to the endowment.

Thus, in times of greater than average inflation, Gilman's endowment is able to keep pace with increasing costs. The growth in Gilman's endowment is shown in the chart below.

Leadership Giving 2006-2007

In baseball, leading players strive to bat 500. At Gilman, 500 holds its own meaning, as 541 leadership donors of $1,000 or more contribute 80.5 percent of the total annual dollars raised.

The Founders' Society

The Founders' Society is Gilman School's leadership group recognizing donors who contribute $1,500 or more to The Gilman Fund. Through their generosity each year, members of the Founders' Society ensure that the quality of a Gilman education continues today. The Founders' Society includes five membership levels: Anne Galbraith Carey, Louise Fisher Bruce, Daniel Coit Gilman, William A. Fisher, and Homewood Circle.

Leadership Giving 2006-2007

Leadership giving is vital to Gilman School's success. Of the more than $2.1 million raised through this year's Gilman Fund campaign and senior parent gift effort, 541 leadership donors, giving $1,000 or more in one year, contributed $1,756,675—or 80.5 percent of the total.

Leadership Group	Donors	Gifts	Average Gift
Anne Galbraith Carey $20,000 or more	9	$282,754	$31,417
Louise Fisher Bruce $10,000 - $19,999	39	$412,360	$10,573
Daniel Coit Gilman $5,000 - $9,999	64	$349,645	$5,463

Total	541	$1,756,675	$3,247

THE FOUNDERS' SOCIETY

Anne Galbraith Carey

Established in 1992, the Anne Galbraith Carey level represents Gilman's highest leadership group. These donors have made an exceptional commitment to upholding the quality of a Gilman education. The Anne Galbraith Carey level is a tribute to Mrs. Carey, whose energy, imagination and determination were responsible for Gilman's founding.

Louise Fisher Bruce

The Louise Fisher Bruce membership level credits donors with the vision to imagine great possibilities for Gilman, as did Anne Galbraith Carey's loyal friend, Louise Fisher Bruce, who is considered co-mother in Mrs. Carey's endeavor to establish the nation's first country day school. (This level is new for 2006-2007.)

Ludlow H. Baldwin Society

Ludlow H. Baldwin Society

Established in 2002, the Ludlow H. Baldwin Society acknowledges those contributors who provide a vital base of support. Ludlow Baldwin '22 was a passionate educator whom alumni remember best for his vigorous teaching of ancient history. Baldwin taught at Gilman from 1946 until 1968, serving as Headmaster from 1963 until 1968. A man of vision, Baldwin laid the groundwork for Gilman's financial future by working with Cooper Walker '33 to initiate the School's annual giving program.

Third Floor Common Room Honors Class of 2007

The Class of 2007 enjoys a lasting tribute in the renovated Carey Hall, thanks to their parents and grandparents, who raised more than $197,000 to name and furnish the new third floor common area through the Senior Parent Gift Effort. The third floor houses the mathematics and history departments, and the common area, with student lockers and tables for general gathering, joins the three hallways. A plaque honoring the Class of 2007, along with a picture of the boys, hangs in the space. In addition, a portion of this gift was credited to The Gilman Fund.

Carita and Ned Kelly P'07, '09, Barbara and James Shea P'07 and Joan and Richard Thomas '72, P'07 served as tremendous co-chairs this year, inspiring 76% percent of senior parents to participate in the effort. They worked closely with a group of dedicated committee members: Connie and Andrew Chriss P'07, Elaine and Chris Fallon P'07, Connie and Hugh Fitzpatrick P'07, Gayle and Steve Gorn P'07, Barbie and Duff Hart P'07, Laura and Tom Johnson P'07, '13, '15, Ingrid and Owen McMaster P'07, '11, Cheryl and Rick Sunderland '78, P'07, and Sisi and Christopher Wills P'07.

In Memory of Ollie Richards

Each year, Gilman School receives hundreds gifts in memory of loved ones connected to the School. We are truly honored that so many friends and family members choose to remember them in this meaningful way.

This year, Sheila and Dick Riggs '57 made a special donation to the School in memory of Ollie Richards, who become close to many Gilman families as a personal chef and caterer. Her closest link, however, is through her grandson, Jarrell Diggs '08. Mrs. Richards believed strongly in education and expressed great pride in her grandson.

Mrs. Richards will be missed, but her legacy lives because of the Riggs' tribute. To follow in the Riggs' footsteps or to give in memory of a loved family member or friend, please contact the Gilman School Development Office at 410-323-7176.
